

Cruising for some CRACA members is an informal weekend gunkholing while for others it's attending one of Association's organized cruises to favorite destinations such as Beacon Rock, Martin Island, and Cathlamet. Each summer many CRACA members head north to the cruising grounds of Puget Sound and the Gulf Islands.

Racing has long been popular among CRACA sailors. Members have competed in the Small Yacht Sailing Club of Oregon's (SYSCO) Spring Regatta, SYSCO Spring and Summer Series, Banks Sails Gold Rush, the biennial SIX-PAC, the August SYSCO One-Design Regatta, the PYC Fall Regatta, and the RCYC Long Distance Race.

Columbia River

All Catalina Association

The Columbia River All Catalina Association (CRACA) is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting the enjoyment of owning and sailing boats built by Catalina Yachts.

Objectives

- Promote harmonious relationships and fellowship among Catalina owners.
- Coordinate cruising and social activities.
- Promote safe-boating education.
- Exchange technical information.
- Cooperate with other yachting organizations.
- Maintain communications with Catalina owners through meetings, mailings, a website, and a newsletter.
- Promote the care and maintenance of boats from Catalina Yachts.

Activities

An active cruising schedule is augmented by a wide range of CRACA sponsored social and educational activities. Events include parties, the annual Columbia River Catalina Rendezvous, and periodic meetings featuring guest speakers covering topics such as rigging and sails to cruising and maintenance.

Membership

Membership is open to anyone who is the owner or part owner of a sailboat from Catalina Yachts. Associate Member status is available to non-owners.

More Info

The Association's charter, schedule of events, monthly newsletter, and meeting times and locations can be found online at the Association's website.
